

Chris Millar, Gutterballs - Back Cover, 2011, Acrylic on wood panel, 8.5" x 8.5"

SAVE THE DATE

Chris Millar - September 8th through to October 8th, 2011

TrépanierBaer is pleased to present an exhibition of new works by Chris Millar, opening on Thursday, September 8th. Millar has been labouring fastidiously in his studio while attending various musical venues throughout the city of Calgary (he was seen at many Sled Island events). This exhibition will comprise of a major new sculpture, several new paintings and a new audio piece multiple titled Gutterballs with music by Millar and vocals by the amazing Samantha Savage Smith. You won't want to miss this exhibition. Mark your calendars!

Oh Canada - Mass MoCA (Massachusetts Museum of Contemporary Art)

May 27th, 2012 through to April 1st, 2013

Congratulations are in order to Eric Cameron, David Hoffos, Micah Lexier, Luanne Martineau, Chris Millar, Kent Monkman and Graeme Patterson on their inclusion in an upcoming exhibition at the Massachusetts Museum of Contemporary Art. Curated by Denise Markonish, Oh, Canada presents work by over 60 Canadian contemporary artists. The scope of the exhibition exceeds a nationalistic tone by "... encouraging a dialogue about contemporary art made in Canada, touching on issues of craft/making, conceptualism, humour and identity..." The show will be complimented by a detailed catalogue with contributions by Douglas Coupland, Candice Hopkins, Lesley Johnstone, Wayne Baerwarldt and Louise Déry to name a few. This exhibition is definitely worth a visit should you happen to be in the area.

TRAVEL ADVISORY

Eric Cameron:

Traffic: Conceptual Art in Canada 1965-1980, group exhibition at the Art Gallery of Alberta, Edmonton, Alberta; on view from June 25th through to September 25th.

Fred Herzog: Street Photography, National Gallery of Canada, Ottawa, Ontario; on view from June 13th through to September 5th. This exhibition presents close to 30 photographs by Vancouver photographer Fred Herzog. These images, captured during the late 1950s and throughout the 1960s, depict Vancouver as well as Victoria, San Francisco and Banff. Organized by the Canadian Museum of Contemporary Photography.

Luanne Martineau: Rodman Hall Art Centre, St. Catherines Ontario; on view May 7th through to August 14th. This exhibition presents recent works, including felt sculptures, drawings and what Martineau calls "drulptures" - a unique combination of the two latter disciplines. Organized by the Musée d'art contemporain de Montréal in partnership with Rodman Hall Art Centre.

Evan Penny: Re-Figuring Figuration, on view from June 2nd through to September 4th at Kunsthalle Tübingen, Germany. This exhibition is a concentrated survey of approximately forty works by Penny from the past decade. Accompanied by a multilingual catalogue available at TrépanierBaer, this exhibition will continue to the Museum der Moderne Rupertinum in Salzburg, Austria; MARCA (Museo delle Arti di Catanzaro) Italy, and conclude in 2012 at the Art Gallery of Ontario in Toronto.

Vancouver Art Gallery - *The Colour of My Dreams: The Surrealist Revolution in Art, on view from May 28th through to September 25th, 2011. This exhibition will be shown exclusively at the Vancouver Art Gallery and features 350 works by leading Surrealist artists, including André Breton, Salvador Dalí, Max Ernst, René Magritte, Joan Miró, Alberto Giacometti, Leonora Carrington, Brassaï, André Masson, Man Ray, Edith Rimmington, Wifredo Lam and many others. Guest curated by Dawn Ades, internationally renowned expert on Surrealist art, Ades has selected works of art that underscore the Surrealists' radical sense of experimentation and the expansive range of mediums in which they worked, including painting, sculpture, collage, photography and film. A must if you're in Vancouver.
